Girls swim suits this season are the revelation type . . . . . low and behold!

Generally, in most gardens in this country, Hibiscus are restricted to the usual red or scarlet type of Hibiscus. Delightful effects, however, can be obtained by crossing one Hibiscus with another and the results of such crossing are quite amazing in their characteristics.

If anyone in the United States of America cares to write to me c/o P. O. Box 909, Durban, Natal, South Africa, I shall be glad to send cuttings and give any information that I am able to.
